👤 Profile

I am a young Interior Designer born in Kwa-Zulu Natal currently residing in a small suburb called Edenvale. Having studied art and design, i enjoy creating aesthetic and functional spaces. I would like to explore all kinds of design in the field and also share knowledge i have acquired over the years practising the craft. Being a part of an enthusiastic design team would help grow my passion for design.

Objective

My aim is to work for a firm to upskill and add to nurture my talents. Though design processes may be different, I am open to new ways of learning the design field. With my open mind, I can grasp in new information that is presented before me. I am willing to improve on skills that need polishing because I understand that by bettering myself, I better the future of the company. With me as a representative, you are guaranteed a committed and dedicated ally. Together, we will evolve design.
